

Resisting the Drone Wars

A day gathering for campaigners

Drones are the new way to wage war with US, Israeli and British forces using armed drones to launch attacks around the globe. So called 'risk free' remote warfare has killed thousands from Pakistan, to Yemen, from Afghanistan to Gaza.

Speakers, workshops, planning, networking

Saturday 14 June 10.30am - 4.30pm

Friends Meeting House, London NW1 2BJ (opp. Euston Station)

All Welcome

Drone Campaign Network

www.dronecampaignnetwork.org.uk

Programme

In the morning there will be panel sessions with key speakers sharing information on the current and future use of drones including

- Jen Gibson, Reprieve
- Chris Cole, Drone Wars UK
- Alice Ross, The Bureau of Investigative Journalism
- Chris Jones, Statewatch

After lunch there will be workshops and working groups focusing on developing national and local campaign action as well as a chance to share ideas and plan for the Week of Action on Drones (4-11 Oct)

This event is open to all - donations welcome.
Bring your own lunch / Friends House Café will be open

Please book your place by emailing:

campaign@dronewars.net

or calling 01865 243688